KIDSMATTER CORNER

The ability to make and maintain friends is an important part of a child's daily life and future success as an adult.

Knowing how to make and maintain friendships, resolve conflict, make decisions and solve problems helps children to get along in the world.

Children are not born with these abilities.

Friendship skills develop over time with regular support, guidance and practice and contribute to a child's mental health and wellbeing.

Head to the KidsMatter website to find more information and resources.

AUSTRALIAN FLAG

In 1901, the Commonwealth of Australia was formed. Until this time, Australia used Britain's flag, the Union Jack. A competition was held to find the design for Australia's own flag. Five designers shared the prize because they came up with similar ideas for the Australian flag.

In the top left hand corner is the Union Jack. This shows that Australia is part of the British Commonwealth. Beneath the Union Jack is a large white star with seven points. The points represent the six states and the territories. Originally this star had six points. The seventh point, for the territories was added in 1908.

On the right hand side are the stars of the Southern Cross. The Southern Cross was chosen because it can always be seen in the Australian sky at night.

We fly the flag at school and do so with pride. It indicates where we came from, who we are and what we stand for. It represents, freedom, justice and hope.

We were honoured to receive an Tasmanian Flag on Wednesday this week in assembly from Shane Broad MP our local Labour representative. We would like to thank Mr Broad and the Government for their gift.

PRIMARY BOYS & LONG TROUSERS

It has come to my attention once again this year that some primary boys are wanting to wear long pants. We have had long shorts and long socks for the primary boys uniform for over 25 years now, the main argument for them, was that long pants get dirty or holed knees and the gap of skin between the top of the socks and the bottom of the shorts was very minimal.

If you want your son to wear long pants then they must be dress pants, not casual and they must also wear a singlet or thermal under their shirt and also wear a jumper. As you can imagine we have boys who wear long pants, but don't wear singlets or jumpers, so this defeats the whole purpose.

Your help in this matter is most appreciated:)
