TIME & TALENT AUCTION

The P&F Time & Talent Auction is on again! This is always a fun and fantastic fundraiser for the P&F and we encourage everyone to get involved by 1. donating a time, talent or item to be auctioned off & 2. coming along on the night and inviting friends and family.

We sent out a Time & Talent donation slip earlier this week and have already had a great response!! Thank you everyone who has already donated ☺ If you haven't yet, there's still plenty of time and we would love your support.

The Auction will be held at school on Friday, June 21 with viewing commencing at 6:30pm and supper to follow. Please keep this date free as it is a great event and we would love to see you there!

ENTERTAINMENT BOOKS

There are still a few families that need to return or pay for their entertainment books. Please do so as soon as possible. Thanks.

P&F MEETING

There will be a Parents & Friends meeting here at school on Monday, May 20 at 10:45am. All welcome ☺

Blessed are the Broken

Studies on the Sermon on the Mount, Matthew 5-7

At our May 2013 Forum, Campbell Markham will be opening Matthew's Gospel (Chapters 5, 6, and 7). Campbell will help us to think about the foundations of our lives, how we see God, and how we see ourselves.

Campbell Markham is married to Amanda-Sue and they have four children aged ten to sixteen. They moved four years ago from Perth, Western Australia, to fill David Jones's place at Cornerstone Presbyterian Church. Campbell loves to teach the Bible, and has ministered for the past fourteen years in three Presbyterian Churches. He believes that Jesus' sublime Sermon on the Mount is an essential foundation for a living and growing faith in the Saviour.
