VERSE OF THE WEEK

'Sing to God, sing in praise of his name, extol him who rides on the clouds; rejoice before him—his name is the Lord. A father to the fatherless, a defender of widows, is God in his holy dwelling.'
~ Psalm 68:4-5

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO...

HONESTY IS THE BEST POLICY

A little lie is still a lie. A white lie is still a lie. And a lie is a sin. The Bible tells us; "Be sure your sin will find you out"! So always seek to live an honest life, always tell the truth, stand up for what is right, never accept anything less and keep in mind that you are solely responsible for what you say and do. "For every one of us must give an account of ourselves". Romans 14:12

P&F TIME & TALENT AUCTION!

A humongous thank you to everyone who donated times & talents & items and who came along and bid at our Time & Talent Auction! It was a brilliant and hilarious time of fun, fellowship and fundraising. An especially big thank you to Gordon Kelly, our auctioneer extraordinaire – thanks so much Gordon!!

With all your help and support (and the tremendous hard work of our P&F) we were able to raise $8146.50 to go towards the school!!!! Thank you so much everyone!! We couldn't have done it without your support ☺

Over the last few weeks some of our staff have been enthusiastically participating in updating their first aid skills ☺ Above you can see them practicing bracing a casualties legs together (which is not very good for hopping though the jungle, we decided ☺). Good work everyone!!

The Kinder's beautiful egg-shell boats and snowmen!

GRADE 1&2

This week we started learning about being punctual, and how important it is to be on time for things, which includes finishing our PACEs before lunch! We did an experiment to find out how popcorn and chocolate changes when it is heated and then cooled again. The popcorn smelled very yummy. We walked around the cross country track, and up a huge hill which made us tired, but it was lots of fun.

Student of the Week

Ryan Wilson – for amazing and dedicated reading

GRADE 3&4

Bravehearts and Ditto visited our school last Thursday and taught us about ways to be safe. We learnt we all have the right to feel safe with people and it's okay to say no if we feel unsure. We also learnt there is nothing so yucky that we can't tell someone about it. We especially enjoyed the songs and having our photo with Ditto.

Student of the Week

Jocoby McKercher – for excellent effort to always do his best

GRADE 7&8

Students of the Week

Georgia Marks – for having a good attitude and applying herself to her work

Allanah Bryan – for being friendly and consistently working hard

The students are really enjoying doing dance in drama!!

GRADE 9&10

Student of the Week

Angel Green – for a great effort towards cross-country training
