IMPORTANT

WHAT PARENTS NEED TO KNOW ABOUT THIS ONLINE GAME

Parents need to know Five Nights at Freddy's is a horror game that uses tension and jump scares in place of blood and guts – and, as a result, is a lot scarier than many other titles. The sense of being trapped and defenceless in a small office quickly becomes real and when the animatronic characters jump out at you, you'll jump (and maybe scream). This makes the game much too intense for younger kids. It is not just an app, children can simply go onto a web browser, type in the name and start playing. If your child is playing this game, then you need to stop them.

One of our amazing students received a very special award on Saturday night. Kory Broomhall races Motocross in the Tasmanian State Motocross and he has worked very hard to overcome his fears on the track and he does this with his cheeky grin and love of riding his bike. Kory was awarded the Rookie of the Year Glynn Chapman Memorial Award for his commitment and consistency, his fantastic kind attitude towards his racing, fellow competitors and all officials and never giving up even if he is last or falls off. When he accepted this award, (which was a huge surprise and shock to his parents) he stood up on the podium beaming, and held the shield high while the whole room cheered for him. Kory then had to do an impromptu thank you speech where he thanked his Mum, Dad and sister, Rosie, for taking him to the track, fixing his bike and washing it. He then thanked his teachers at school for helping him understand the world better and he thanked all his friends.

It's stories like this that we love and want to share with everyone! Thank to Kim for sending the photos and story to us.
