And so we know and rely on the love God has for us. God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in them.

1 John 4:16 NIV

HAVING TEA TOGETHER AS A FAMILY CAN REDUCE BULLYING ONLINE

Recent research has indicated that regular family dinners can reduce the likelihood or minimise the effects of cyberbullying. Of course it is not the meal that has the positive result but the communication and closeness that occurs when a family eats together. When speaking to families regarding safe online strategies number one advice is always 'communication'. Speaking to your children is the key and family meals are generally times this can occur. This is a small message that can have powerful results.
