PRAYER CORNER

- Pray for our staff and students as they come into the last few weeks of the year
- Pray for our school as we prepare for our 50th Celebration Day
- Praise God for our wonderful loving, caring and supporting staff who grow and teach our students on a daily basis

Would you like to spread some goodwill and Christmas cheer?

Why not send a parcel to one of our Defence Force members in combat? You can send a care package up to 2kg to an Australian Soldier who will be deployed over the Christmas period. As a school we would love to bless our soldiers that are fighting overseas. We will be collecting items at the school office to pack and send with notes from our students. If you would like to donate items, please send them into the office by November 30th.

Some items you could include:

- socks • disposable razors • facial wipes • roll-on deodorant • toothpaste/toothbrush • magazines
- non-perishable food items • shower gel • DVDs
- puzzle books • talcum powder

// The More You Have //

"The more you have the happier you'll be." At least that's what most people think. The fact is the more you have, the more you tend to want. Material things seldom satisfy. More often than not, they can create a hunger for even more things and a breeding ground for greed. It's also true that the more you have, the more people want things from you. Having wealth often creates jealousy among those we know. And sometimes even among some we don't know. There's nothing fun about being envied for what you have. Also the more you have, the more you have to lose. It takes a steady hand to hold a full cup. And not everyone is up to the task. So instead of spending your time wishing you had more, spend it being thankful for what you have. Because chances are you have all you need.
