CHRISTMAS CAROLS CONCERT

Geneva's vocal coach, Stephen Atkins is set to perform at a Christmas Carols Concert at the Performing Arts, Pitcairn St. in Port Sorell on Friday, 12th Dec at 7pm-8:30pm. Entry is free!! It promises to be a great night for the whole family and is being organised by the churches of Port Sorell.

Stephen is a well-know recording and touring artist and he has dedicated his music to helping people discover true meaning and purpose in their lives with songs that present the hope, peace and salvation that God wants to give. His passionate performances are highly entertaining and his unique brand of Christian music has a timeless quality that appeals to both believers and non-believers alike. Stephen has recorded 6 studio albums that have often been played on radio. His music has been said to have "a depth and quality that is uncommon in the genre" and he has been described as a "highly talented performer" whose "great voice and musical ability appeals to all ages." Come along and bring a friend or two!!

INTERNATIONAL DISABILITY DAY

Some new friends from Devonfield visited us for International Disability Day. We enjoyed their company as we danced and had a BBQ with salads prepared by some grade 1/2 students. Thanks to Mrs Marks for organising the day. We all had a wonderful time.

PRIZE LOAF

Here you can see Mr Stafferton's PRIZE LOAF that he baked for the Devonport Show.

T-SHIRTS FOR SALE

Sadly, the Latrobe Christian Bookshop closed its doors for the last time this week. Some t-shirts were left over and they have asked us to sell them at heavily reduced prices. These t-shirts can be found on display at the front office. Grey - $10ea White-$5ea. Mottos read, "Ask Believe Receive" and "Fruit of the Spirit." Please see Loretta if you are interested in purchasing one. :-)

HEADLICE

Please check your children for headlice as we have spotted some this week. :)
