STRENGTH & STABILITY

Verse of the week:

The historical emblem of Latrobe is the anchor, an object that serves to hold firmly and steady. In fact, on my old school blazer, the badge reads 'fortis et stabilis' – strength & stability. I know we would all wish to have strength and stability in our lives. Many of us desire things we never expect and most of us expect things we never desire. I believe HOPE is a blend of both and could be described as the happy combination of what we desire, plus an expectation that it will happen.

I will sing to the Lord, because He has dealt bountifully with me.

Psalms 13:6

Prayer/praise points:

The Lord has given His people "one HOPE" (Eph. 4:4) which is described as the "anchor of the soul" (Heb. 6:19). An anchor has two parts that dig into the sea floor to hold the ship stable and strong. These two parts represent the hope Christians have in Jesus. The first is that God is always stable, He cannot and does not lie. The second is that those who believe in Him can find their strength in the fact that Jesus really did die, come alive and offers a relationship with Him, one that is filled with great hope.

- Pray for a safe and relaxing Term 2 holidays.
- Pray for the Ski Trip that leaves on Sunday.
- Praise God for the drenching rain.
- Pray for great weather and good sportsmanship tomorrow at our Cross Country.

As a boat faces storms that threaten to drive it off course; we as humans face storms of doubt, fear, job loss, low finances, family fracture, ill health, death etc. Just as the anchor on a boat reaches down into the deep of the ocean floor, we need the anchor of our soul to reach into the unfathomable grace and mercy of God. For the anchor on the boat to do its job, it must hold sure and steadfast. Where do you have your anchor? Is it attached to that which is sure and steadfast, completely certain and reliable? God offers both!
